

Battle of the Books December Update

Wow!! The students are working so hard to read their books and write questions. All of them seem so excited and are enjoying the books. It is such a great opportunity for the students to read books they would not have normally picked up.

Questions- Please encourage your child to write his/her questions while they are reading. The questions must have a page number with it so we can easily find the answer in the battle. It is harder to write the questions after the book is completed. The students should also read through the information on the Battle of the Books Wiki (link is on Turner Creek's home page within the left side navigation bar) about writing questions.

Posting Questions- We will be teaching the students on November 29 and December 13 how to post their question on the Wiki. The questions will be posted by teams and this will make it much easier during the battle. If they have any issues or problems posting the questions, they can write them on a sheet of paper or index card and hand them in to one of the teachers to be posted.

Meeting Dates: January 10 & 24, February 14, March 6 & 20.

Please remember that you do not have to purchase the books- they are available in the media center, AIG trailer (just a few copies), and the public library. If you do purchase a book and want to share it, please put your child's name in the book and have them bring it to the AIG trailer. We will keep record on who is borrowing to ensure your child gets it back after the battle is over. Thank you!
