

Battle of the Books- March

WOW! What a fun battle we had last week! We cannot say enough how proud we are of the students for working so hard the last few months on reading the books and writing questions. We were very impressed during the battle that the students knew so much from the books. They were all winners to us!

Congratulations to Ian Kang, Brayden Paul, Grant McNaughton, and Jackson Phillips for winning the battle! It was a very close final round and all three teams did an excellent job.

Thank you so much to Erika Phillips for organizing the pizza lunch for the students. It was such a nice treat for them!

Please, please parents and students fill out the short survey (anonymous and only 5 questions) about the Battle of the Books. We are starting to plan next year's battle and appreciate the feedback.

We are having Skype visits with 2 of the authors (Tom Angelberger and John Claude Bemis) in April. Mr. Angelberger will be on April 10 at 2:00 and Mr. Bemis will be on April 26 at 2:30. If you are tracked out, please join us for the Skype visits- we will be having them in the media center.

Thank you again for all your help and support. We had a great time with it and look forward to continuing it in the years to come.
